I – Read the following passage and answer the questions below : (20 marks)

How do you make decision ? A lot of the time people make decisions without really thinking about it , They use their instinct , and they just hope that they have done the right thing .

However, this kind of decision – making is no good business , and it's probably not the best way to decide big things in our everyday lives either . Good managers recognize that decision – making is not a moment in time but a process . If you follow the process carefully , the decision will usually be a good one .

There is an old saying in business: ' there is only one thing worse than a bad decision , and that is no decision at all . "
