I-Read the following passage and answer the questions below :

( 20 marks )

Julius Caesar is a play about persuasion . People persuade Caesar to go to Senate . Brutus persuades the other conspirators not to kill Mark Antony , then they persuade him to allow Mark Antony to speak at Caesar's funeral . Mark Antony in turn persuades the mob that the death of Caesar was a crime . The play shows that leaders must always be careful about using power . Critics say this timeless theme makes Julius Caesar a very important play .
